This week's Gospel Value

Compassion

When Jesus shone with bright light on the mountain, His friends saw just how full of God's love He was. That same love helps us to be kind and gentle with others. Jesus showed compassion when His friends were frightened—He touched them softly and said, “Do not be afraid.”

This reminds us that compassion means noticing when someone is sad, worried, or left out, and choosing to help them feel safe and loved. Just as Jesus shared His light with His friends, we can share His light by being caring, patient, and kind to the people around us.
